"Dan at Shoosh weddings was a pleasure to have at our wedding. He supplied all of the equipment required, played all of our playlist requests plus added in other music to create a great vibe! He was extremely helpful leading up to the wedding and showed huge amounts of enthusiasm which was lovely. Everyone loved our evening reception and raved about the music and the amazing atmosphere!"

"It was an absolute pleasure working with Dan to arrange the entertainment and music for our wedding. Dan made the process so easy and straightforward and was always available for guidance and help. Our guests had a great time and we would highly recommend Dan."

"Dan was worth every penny and then some. As a nightclub DJ with 20 years' experience myself I had very specific and high expectations of my wedding DJ, which Dan comfortably surpassed. On the night he played the optimum balance of underground music that I had requested (perfectly beatmatched and mixed) alongside more obvious party tunes to keep a diverse crowd entertained. The dancefloor was packed from the first tune until the obligatory "New York New York" sign off."

"Dan made our wedding a complete success. Everyone after came to us and commented on the music and what a great party atmosphere there was."

Mrs Lesley Titterington (Quinn)

"Shoosh Weddings (Dan) was absolutely fantastic on our wedding day. We sent him pages of our favourite music in advance and he managed to include a lot of the songs on the evening, which meant so much to us. To have your favourite songs played on your big day is so special. The dance floor was never empty and he kept people dancing all night. We also had comments after the wedding by various guests, saying how good they thought the DJ was. He was also extremely professional and helpful"

Mrs Kirsty Sargeant

"Dan was professional, reassuring and unflappable throughout the whole process. We have recommended him to other couples and would use him again without hesitation."

Mrs Tracey Mallia (Berlock)

"Having extensively searched the internet for a wedding DJ who could play standard party tunes but also credibly play and mix underground music, I identified Dan. Being based in Singapore but having the wedding back home in London added a complexity around the communication but Dan was extremely responsive in his emails and calls, being very warm and friendly in the process. His professionalism shone through in visting the venue ahead of time and assessing the requirements there around equipment and set-up logistics. He was also able to take on a last minute request to accommodate some videos that formed part of my best man's speech. Along the way he displayed just the right balance between accommodating my requests around music and logistics, and using his experience to steer me toward what was the best choice as to what would work on the day. Setup was seamless and his equipment functioned perfectly. The music really was the "icing on the cake" at the end of a very special day and we were given so many compliments on our choice of DJ. I would categorically recommend Dan to anyone looking for a wedding DJ and wholeheartedly back him for this award."
